

THE ADOLESCENT HEALTH WORKING GROUP is pleased to announce a community forum featuring the pioneering work of the FAMILY ACCEPTANCE PROJECT*

WHEN
Friday, October 26th, 2007
9:00a.m. to 11:00a.m.

WHERE
The Center
1800 Market Street
San Francisco, CA 94102

Who should attend?

Advocates and providers working with or on behalf of children, youth and families.

Participants of this forum will gain a new understanding of:

- The critical impact of family acceptance and rejection on health and mental health outcomes for LGBT youth
- Need for a family-related approach to serving LGBT youth in community, health and social service agencies
- Reframing child abuse for LGBT children and adolescents
- Rethinking prevention services for LGBT out-of-home youth

Refreshments and time for networking will be provided!

To register, please fill out and FAX this sheet to (415) 554-8965

Name _____ Title _____
Organization _____
Address _____
Phone _____ E-mail _____

 The Family Acceptance Project (FAP) is a community research, intervention and education initiative to study the impact of family acceptance and rejection on the health, mental health and well-being of LGBT youth. A project of the César E. Chávez Institute at San Francisco State University, FAP is working to develop effective, culturally appropriate interventions and a new model of family-related care to improve health and mental health outcomes for LGBT young children and adolescents.*